and Other Things.

We've had so many calls for Oysters that to be accommodating we have ordered a supply for Friday and Saturday. Nice big fat ones fresh from the beds, at the same price you have to pay elsewhere and really, we think the oysters are a trifle better than they keep in most places. Sorry we can't put the price down, too, but the profit is ! hardly enough to pay for handling them.

Now to meats Our shipment of fresh Western Beef just got in yesterday and an extra good shipment it was. We can guarantee that some of the finest steaks and toasts will come out of that beef that you ever had on your plate. The prices will be the same as we usually charge, and those, you know are cheaper than you get
